DETAILS: This investigation involves allegations that well-known public officials used their influence to obtain Government insured financing for businesses in which they had hidden ownership interests. The U. S. Department of Justice has approved the use of an investigatorial grand jury in this matter. It is anticipated that the investigation will require hundreds of interviews and subpoenas which will heavily impact on the resources of numerous field divisions, and therefore, it will be most useful to have the capability of ascertaining the cost of this investigation in the future.

The CAU, ASD, has advised that the next major case indicator number available is 31.

Narrative of Offense:

Investigation in this matter was instituted upon receipt of information from a reliable confidential source that a Small Business Administration (SBA), loan was received in 1971 by the Directors of the Bristol Nursing Home in Attleboro, Massachusetts. Glenside Hospital also was to have received a loan from the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for about $1.1 million. Information received indicates that Congressional pressure was utilized in the obtaining of these loans.

[redacted] Special Agent, Office of the Inspector General, Department of Health and Human Services, Room 5724, 330 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D. C. (WDC), [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] advised that he [redacted]

[redacted] was provided a photocopy of an SBA report for the Bristol Nursing Home, dated July 7, 1978. [redacted] noted that this is the first of two reports regarding allegations that false statements were issued by the benefactors of the nursing home to secure a $150,000, 90 percent guaranteed loan from the SBA. [redacted] stated that both reports [redacted]

[redacted] advised that [redacted]

[redacted] limited the scope of the Bristol Nursing Home investigation during the period Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) Alan D. Rose, Boston, declined prosecution of the case due to the statute of limitations. [redacted] explained that although he [redacted]

[redacted] believed that [redacted] was required to complete other investigations with only minimum manpower resources. [redacted] has regretted not authorizing [redacted] to interview the Speaker of the House, Thomas P. O'Neill, Jr., [redacted]

[redacted] was provided a photocopy of a document entitled, "Articles of Partnership," dated October 16, 1971.

[redacted] stated that he was provided said document from [redacted] the Bristol Nursing Home. Although said copy was not executed by the Home's various partners, [redacted] noted that the partners had executed an exact copy of the document. [redacted] added that he never wrote/scribbled

[redacted] advised that [redacted]

[redacted] examined various purported partnership agreements for the Bristol Nursing Home. In addition, [redacted] searched various records outlining Massachusetts state law which encompassed the formation of said partnerships. [redacted] provided a memorandum to the SBA investigative file outlining his legal opinion surrounding said partnership agreements.

[redacted] was provided a photocopy of a document entitled, "Partnership Agreement," dated May, 1970. [redacted] compared the two agreements and stated he never directly questioned [redacted]

[redacted] if the Speaker of the House contributed approximately $10,000 in cash to the partnership. [redacted] pointed out that the May, 1970 agreement [redacted]

[redacted] believes that O'Neill and [redacted] may have provided "services" as their contributed capital to the partnership.

[redacted] advised that both [redacted] stated that O'Neill was involved in arranging the first mortgage through a savings and loan for the Bristol Nursing Home. [redacted] affirmed that O'Neill guaranteed both the first mortgage at the savings and loan and the SBA guaranteed loan.

[redacted] present when [redacted] provided the information that O'Neill guaranteed both the commercial and SBA backed loans.

[redacted] advised that he questioned the propriety of Daniel T. Guerin, deceased SBA loan officer, and [redacted] allowing O'Neill to terminate his personal guarantee on the Bristol Nursing Home. [redacted] noted that the SBA originally approved the loan on the strength of the financial statements provided by the three partners and five guarantors. [redacted] secured a written statement from an SBA loan officer supervisor who believed that no guarantors should be separated from agreement until the loan is satisfied.

[redacted] noted that he believes the SBA acted in behalf of the Government in approving the Bristol Nursing Home loan application. The guarantors of the note maintained a net worth which would allow an SBA loan of the magnitude approved. [redacted] advised that he recalls the events leading up to the February 11, 1971, fire at the Country Squire very well. [redacted] were on patrol in Middleton, Massachusetts, when they observed [redacted] 1968 black LTD Ford Country Squire and a Thunderbird parked outside the Inn. Upon pulling into the parking lot, they noticed that the Country Squire's house lights were not on but could tell that a couple of people were inside looking around with a flashlight. A few minutes later, [redacted] and another unknown individual walked outside and proceeded to the police cruiser. [redacted]

[redacted] then explained that the individual who was with him was a plumber or a contractor, and he was giving an estimate when they noticed the police cruiser outside the building. [redacted] also advised that the reason the building did not have the lights on was because there was no power. [redacted] recalls [redacted] as being very nervous, but at that time did not think anything of it until later. The other individual left in his Thunderbird at which time [redacted] took down the registration number. Later, this individual was identified as [redacted]

At that point, [redacted] advised that he got quite upset at [redacted] advised that when they arrived at the Country Squire the alarm or sprinkler system was not functioning. Inquiry with the Middleton Fire Department found that the lock and chain was still on the valve for the system but the valve had been closed and therefore the sprinkler system could not operate.

[redacted]
Relo Leasing Corporation, 614 West Brown Deer Road,
Milwaukee, Wisconsin, advised as follows:

Relocation Leasing Corporation was initiated as a limited endeavor by [redacted] who are major stockholders in Relocation Realty Inc.
Relocation Leasing Corporation later changed their name to Relo Leasing Corporation.

The purpose of Relocation Leasing Corporation was primarily to purchase nursing homes and subsequently lease them on a long-term basis. This type of operation was particularly desirable because, at that time, they were able to obtain insurance which guaranteed the full amount of the lease payments for the entire term of the lease in the event of payment default on the part of the leasee. They were able to obtain this favorable insurance from various mortgage insurance companies because the loans were co-insured by the Small Business Administration (SBA). The SBA originally entered into mortgage insurance agreements in the early 1960s in order to allow small businesses to lease space in large shopping centers. In effect, the small businesses would receive Triple A business consideration in the eyes of a lessor who was attempting to obtain a mortgage on the shopping center. In view of the guaranteed lease payments, the financial institution would not question the small businesses' ability to make lease payments on an ongoing basis. The SBA would guarantee 80% of the liability in the event of a default by the leasee and in return received 20% of the insurance premiums charged by the insurance company. b7C

This type of arrangement put the lessor in a no risk situation since if he could obtain mortgage insurance they would have no problem in obtaining financing. Relocation Leasing Corporation purchased 13 nursing homes in Texas in the early part of the 1970s. They also purchased Glenside Psychiatric Hospital, Boston, Massachusetts. [redacted] described their acquisition of that institution as follows.

Investigation on 3/27/80 at Milwaukee, Wisconsin File # MI 183-339

by SAs [redacted] FPC(FPC/kls) Date dictated 3/31/80

[redacted] first became acquainted with [redacted] in the 1960s when these two individuals attended a tax course given by [redacted] at a National Institute of Real Estate Brokers convention held in Atlanta. In subsequent years, [redacted] met [redacted] at real estate conventions and they became good friends. [redacted] were real estate brokers in Louisville, Kentucky. [redacted] were familiar with [redacted] interest in acquiring nursing homes because [redacted] had invested in a company known as Extendicare Inc., Louisville, Kentucky. In the early 1970s, Extendicare was in the business of buying and selling nursing homes. Later their primary interest became hospitals. Extendicare's name was later changed to Humana which is currently the largest owner of hospitals in the United States and is listed on the New York Stock Exchange. b7C

[redacted] was employed by Extendicare as [redacted] in the area of nursing homes and hospitals. As an acquisition specialist, [redacted] would locate nursing homes and hospitals which could be purchased, conduct feasibility studies into their purchase, and perhaps obtain financing through which Extendicare would purchase the institution. [redacted] would receive a commission for his work. [redacted] being aware of Relocation's acquisition of 13 nursing homes in Texas and their desire to acquire and lease back other institutions, prompted them to encourage [redacted] to contact Relocation Leasing concerning Glenside Psychiatric Hospital. [redacted] which was known as Quali-Care. Apparently Quali-Care did computer work, accounting, and administration for hospitals and nursing homes in the United States and Canada. [redacted]

[redacted] contacted Relocation Leasing Corporation sometime in 1972, informing them of the availability of Glenside Psychiatric Hospital and his interest in leasing it back from the purchaser. Relocation Leasing obtained an appraisal on the property and sought mortgage insurance through Continental Mortgage Insurance Company (CMI), Madison, Wisconsin. Subsequently, they obtained financing to purchase the property with no problem. CMI is now known as Commercial Mortgage Insurance, Inc. (CMI), 150 East Gilman Street, Madison, Wisconsin.

Arrangements were made for a deal to be closed on the property on November 14, 1972. [] recalls being in Boston, Massachusetts, for the closing for several days. Upon purchasing the property, a simultaneous lease back would be executed in a separate contract. The property is legally listed in the name of Relocation Leasing Company but they have absolutely nothing to do with the operation or expenses of the property. The leasee pays taxes, upkeep, etc. The leasee was to send an annual financial statement to Relocation Leasing Corporation; however, for the past several years they sent it directly to the lender. The leasee of Glenside Psychiatric Hospital is Glenside, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Quali-Care, Inc. The leasee is still apparently operating successfully and has not missed a lease payment to date. The legal aspects of the closing on the deal were handled for Relocation Leasing Corporation by the law firm [] represented by []

[] recalls that there was a very large pile of papers at the closing which were apparently relevant to the deal. He recalls that there were approximately 13 psychiatrists present at the closing who apparently had some interest in the hospital. He recalled that some of the psychiatrists had been divorced and questions concerning clear ownership had been raised in cases where interest in the hospital was held jointly. Also there had supposedly been no survey of the property since the Civil War, the land was held under a public corporation, and Medleg was an association, not a corporation, all of which caused hindrances upon closing. Medleg was a group of people somehow associated with the deal and [] believes that the "weird" psychiatrists made up this association. b7C

Prior to the closing, none of the members of Relocation Leasing Corporation had ever seen the Glenside property personally, they had only viewed photographs of the buildings. Subsequent to closing, when in Boston on an unrelated matter, [] took a taxicab there just to see what it looked like. He advised that "it was an awful looking place, all of the buildings were old." Although unaware of the FBI's interest in their purchase of Glenside Psychiatric Hospital, [] advised that he had received an inquiry two or three years ago from a reporter for a Boston newspaper. The reporter wanted to know if he had made a deal with TIP O'NEILL concerning the purchase of the home. [] had later learned, probably by looking through some of the documents relating to the purchase of the hospital, that O'NEILL was, in fact, somehow connected to a party in the deal.

Approximately one year ago, [] contacted Relo Leasing Corporation, informing them that he wanted to expand the hospital and requested an option to buy back the institution. Apparently, no financial institution would consider lending him money for the hospital unless he had proof that he would be in a potential position to purchase it. [] indicated that he would be willing to sell the hospital if the buyer would pay off the remainder of the mortgage, all closing costs, plus $150,000. [] thought that [] was waiting for current economic conditions to improve before attempting to secure financing for the purchase of the hospital. b7C [] advised that he would be willing to provide copies of any documents relating to their purchase and lease back of Glenside Hospital. However, the files relating to that sale and subsequent lease back were quite voluminous and indicated that he would make them available at a later date for the Milwaukee Office of the FBI to make copies of any documents they desired.

The Massachusetts Department of Health (MDH) was the agency to which the loans were made available and the various hospitals applied with MDH for the loans.

DETAILS: By 12/2/80 routing slip to attached memorandum, the Director inquired, "Where does this leave the Grand Jury?"

Per Assistant Attorney General Heymann, there will be no Federal Grand Jury proceedings conducted at Washington, D. C., at this time. Our Washington Field Office will, however, conduct investigation concerning the large increment of funds received by O'Neill at the sale of his Glenside stock. This investigation will include review of books and records and interviews of those knowledgeable of the basis of the increment.

The Grand Jury inquiry in Boston will center upon the activities of [Redacted] concerning influence peddling, including the procurement of a Small Business Administration loan. It is not anticipated that O'Neill's increment in the Glenside stock will be pursued by the Boston Grand Jury.
